Ruralco may accept applications for the issue of Roberts unsecured deposit notes under its Prospectus 22nd February 2008 which expires on 22nd March 2009.

An unsecured deposit note of Roberts Limited is not a bank deposit. All investments involve risk and investors risk losing some or all of their principal investment. Roberts Limited's unsecured deposit notes do not have a credit rating by a recognised credit agency.

This means no independent assessment has been made about the risk of loss to investors.

*The minimum initial subscription is $500 for At Call unsecured deposit notes or $2,000 for Fixed Term unsecured deposit notes.

No application for the issue of unsecured deposit notes will be accepted unless it is on the form included in the Prospectus, which is available on the Ruralco website: www.ruralco.com.au
